

Brambles earns #2 industry ranking in Dow Jones Best-in-Class World Index

Global logistics provider recognised for sustainability leadership

Sydney, 1 May 2026: Brambles, a global leader in logistics and operator of the CHEP brand, has been ranked #2 globally in the Commercial Services and Supplies category of the Dow Jones Best-in-Class (DJ BIC) World Index, following the latest rebalancing of the indices.

Of 162 companies assessed in the industry category, Brambles was among only four included in the World Index. Brambles also retained a position in the Dow Jones Best-in-Class Asia-Pacific Index and the Dow Jones Best-in-Class Australia Index, reflecting its leadership in corporate sustainability across global and regional markets.

This is the 12th consecutive year Brambles has been included in the DJ BIC. Formerly known as the Dow Jones Sustainability Indices, the DJ BIC are among the most respected global benchmarks for corporate sustainability performance.

Juan Jose Freijo, Brambles Chief Sustainability Officer, said:

“Brambles’ inclusion in this year’s Dow Jones Best-in-Class Indices reflects the fundamental role of sustainability to our company’s strategic aims, which was reaffirmed in our 2030 Sustainability Programme and continues to drive our ambition to bring regeneration to the global supply network.

“We are honoured to have our sustainability leadership recognised, and proud of the role our circular, asset-sharing model plays in creating long-term value for customers, partners and shareholders.”

Brambles increased its overall assessment score by 4 points to 76/100, against an industry average of 32/100, while scoring in the 98th percentile across all three assessable pillars: Environmental, Social, as well as the Governance & Economic dimension.

Brambles’ sustainability performance was also recognised across a range of leading indices and ratings agencies. It maintained #1 position in its industry category in Corporate Knights’ Global 100 list of most sustainable corporations and was placed among the top 25 companies globally.

Earlier in 2026, the company was awarded a maximum ‘A’ rating for climate and forestry by CDP, the global non-profit that runs the leading independent environmental disclosure system. Brambles also achieved S&P Sustainability Yearbook status and earned a Top 5% S&P Global CSA Score for demonstrating exceptional sustainability performance and transparency.
